Course Purpose/Rationale/Goal: The purpose of the behavioral science component in the core curriculum is to enable the students to understand and apply sociological theories and concepts as they examine human society. When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student's responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

See instructor's Course Information Sheet for additions to the attendance policy.

Course Description: This course is a study of human behavior by placing it within a broader social context. Specifically how groups influence people and especially how people are influenced by their society.

- Course Goals/Objectives:
- An understanding of the theories and language of sociology.
- A knowledge of how the individual influences and is influenced by society
- A better understanding of how society is structured through institutions and culture.

Course Competencies:

Each student will learn to examine the different characteristics and structure of groups within society using sociological theories. It is these theories that will provide the tools to view variations in society. For many of you, this will be your first opportunity to discuss and examine these differences. Since you are taking this class, you are now a Sociologist and therefore will go beyond “personal” views in order to be objective. Objectivity does not mean that you accept or approve but only that you intellectually understand. In many cases, understanding will lead you to broaden yourself not only as an individual but also as a member of society.

Academic Integrity- See College Catalog, p. 23.

Unfortunately, it is necessary to remind all students that any form of cheating will not be tolerated. Cheating is cheating, whether plagiarism or copying another student's exam. It is important that you understand plagiarism and not neglect to include citations on all papers. Please do not put yourself or others in the position of having cheated. If you are caught cheating at my discretion you may be removed from class, or some other appropriate response considering the nature of the infraction.

Classroom Behavior:

I have few classroom rules but feel obligated to discuss disruptive behavior* and what it means in a college classroom. First, we are all adults therefore I would appreciate having your attention when I lecture or when another student is speaking. That means that you will direct comments to the entire class and not just to those seated near you. Do not get "personal" when discussing topics. Secondly, it is very rude to send text messages, do work from other courses or sleep in class. If you feel the need to do any of these you may be asked to leave and return the next day. If you feel the need to use your cell phone in any manner (calling, texting, checking the time, would also include internet capable watches or other jewelry) you should be aware that this is not appropriate. To further clarify: *Disruptive behavior includes but is not limited to being rude to an instructor or other students, walking out of class before class ends, making "side comments" to other students, or any other non-adult behavior as defined by the instructor. The Student Guide details SPC policy concerning student conduct.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Non-Discrimination Statement

South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement

If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact the Director of Health and Wellness at 806-716-2362 or email cgilster@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

OPTIONAL STATEMENT - Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in South Plains College buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and South Plains College policy, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations and Frequently Asked Questions, please refer to the Campus Carry page at: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/campuscarry.php>

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all South Plains College campuses. Report violations to the College Police Department at 806-716-2396 or 9-1-1.

Face Covering Policy for Face to Face classes, meetings and appointments:

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Spring 2021 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.

COVID 19 statement: If you test positive for Covid 19 (or some other serious illness) and think it may make it impossible for you to do your school work for a week or two you must contact me as soon as possible. It would be best to contact me before you miss work in the class, not after. I will be as accommodating as I can and still maintain class and academic integrity. That may vary a bit from situation to situation and person to person. But what is most important is that you establish and maintain communication with me so that I know what is going on in order to do what is best for you and for the class.

Textbook

- The textbook and resources for this course are available in digital form through the Inclusive Access textbook program at South Plains College. That means the e-book edition of the textbook and/or all required resources are provided in the Blackboard portion of the course from the first day of class. The fee for the e-book/resources is included in the student tuition/fee payment, so there is no textbook or access card to purchase for this course.
- How to opt out of Inclusive Access: As long as they meet the opt-out deadline, students may choose not to participate in the Inclusive Access program if they have a textbook from another source. They should check the course syllabus to see if the instructor also requires course work to be done in an online platform (like Mindtap or Connect). There is an Inquizitive online work for this class so opting out of inclusive access will cost the student more money. If so, the student would be required to have access or purchase access to that platform in addition to acquiring the e-book. To opt out of the Inclusive Access e-book/resources, students will need to locate the RedShelf tool in their Blackboard course and follow the instructions given there.

Attendance:

Absences: You will need to come to class if you are not ill. If you are ill those lectures will be posted on the Blackboard page and you will need to watch them for the time that you miss. If you miss you will be required to watch the video for the day you miss and send me an email explaining what you understood best from the lecture, provide your own examples of concept we talked about in the video and tell me what you did not understand. You will have 7 days from the time you miss to watch the video and send me the email. Your email will count as your attendance for that day.

To facilitate social distancing (if necessary) one half of the class will attend on Tuesdays and the other half on Thursdays We will assign reading and online work to be done before class, so that you understand the material and we can spend face to face class time discussion the sociological terms from the text.

Tardiness: being late to class is very disruptive and rude. It is suggested (strongly) that you allow enough time in your schedule to arrive a few minutes early to class. If you are tardy twice, it will count as one (1) absence. If you leave class early, that may count as a tardy or an absence.

If you are tardy it is your responsibility to approach me after class and make sure that you are on the roll for that day to be counted as tardy and not absent.

Grading and Testing: EXAMS: There will be four (4) exams. The fourth is really your final and will only include material covered after exam #3.

Online work and discussions- You will be required to complete the online work in Inquizitive for each chapter we are studying. The Inquizitive work will cumulatively count as much as an exam grade. There are also discussions that relate to the topics we are covering. There are two deadlines for each discussion. The first deadline is for getting your answer to the prompt online. This is your initial post. The second deadline is for responding to other student's work. There are directions for the discussions on the course blackboard page.

Hunger Games ASSIGNMENT: We will work on a group/individual Hunger Games assignment. You will be responsible for reading the summary of the book, or the book if you like, and taking small quizzes over it. The quizzes will be given on line. Once we have worked our way through the book we will have a day when we work to apply what we are learning in class to the book. You will take 4 quizzes over the book that each count as worth 10 points and then the group activity will count for 10 points and another worth 50 points. The assignment will total 100 points and be the equal to an exam.

PAPER: You will write a paper over a film of your choice applying what you have learned in the class to the film. This is similar to what we will do with the Hunger Games assignment but this time you will work by yourself to complete the assignment. I will give you a more detailed assignment sheet when you are to begin working on this assignment.

Course Calendar- A calendar of course events (assignment and exams) will be given out the first week.

Makeup work or Late Work: This is solely at the discretion of the instructor. I am much more accommodating if you tell me ahead of time that you will be absent. Usually make up work for missed exams will not be accepted. If you hand in papers late you should expect large penalties to accrue daily.

90%-100%	A
80%-89%	B
70%-79%	C
60%-69%	D
59% and Below	F

IMPORTANT NOTE:

ATTENDANCE IN THIS CLASS WILL SIGNIFY YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF ALL CLASS AND SPC POLICIES. FAILURE TO ABIDE BY THESE POLICIES WILL RESULT IN EXPULSION FROM CLASS AND AN "F" FOR THE SEMESTER REGARDLESS OF RACE, ETHNICITY, SEX, RELIGION OR SEXUAL ORIENTATION.

READING--I expect you as students to read the chapters before I lecture on them. There are 2 reasons for this. First, you will have some familiarity with the material and therefore the lectures will have a lot more meaning for you. Second, if there is something that you didn't understand in the text you can point it out to me and I can clarify it to you. You will be tested over the lectures as well as the readings. The first thing you should read in each chapter is the visual summary located at the end of the chapter. Next go through the chapter noting highlighted words. You are responsible for the higher level concepts covered in the text, but it is impossible for you to understand these if the book is using words you don't understand! Use the glossary of the book and a dictionary if this will help you. The people who read and comprehend well think and read at the same time. Read the questions at the end of the chapter first and then read the chapter looking for the answers as you read. Write in your book if it helps. Examples of the concepts that you can remember: What you understand, what you don't, anything to help! Once again read the summary first!!

Videos and DVD's can be an excellent instructional tool. These are not viewed by me as simply time filling devices. Any videos that we may watch for class could also be used as exam material.

South Plains College email and Blackboard- This will be the official way that I contact you. You have an official email address provided by the school. This is the one that I will use to contact you.

Outline Portions of the powerpoints--There are also outlines on Blackboard for notes. These would be very helpful for you to download, space out, and then print. This would be the way that I would advise you to take notes.

Writing Expectations: All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English. South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Inclusive Access Course

You are enrolled in a course that is a part of SPC's Inclusive Access electronic textbook program. The Inclusive Access course you are enrolled in is SOCI 1301.

A course in the Inclusive Access program means that any required electronic/digital course materials are included in the cost of the tuition at a discounted rate. Inclusive Access provides access to your course ebook and/or digital materials in Blackboard on the first day of class. Your professor will provide instructions in Blackboard and on your syllabus about how to access course ebooks/digital materials.

If you do not wish to participate in the Inclusive Access textbook program for your course, you may opt out. Please check with your instructor before deciding to opt out. The deadline to opt out of Inclusive Access is February 3rd, 2021, 11:59PM EST. If you do not opt out by this date, you will not receive a refund for your course materials. If you opt out of the Inclusive Access program for a course, you will be responsible for obtaining your required textbooks and course materials for this course through an alternate method.

If you have checked with your instructor and still feel that you should purchase the course textbook/materials on your own, send an opt-out email to tfewell4texasbookcompany@gmail.com. You must include your first name, last name, student ID number, and the course you are opting out of. Once you have been opted out, you will receive a confirmation email.

If you have any questions, please contact your professor or the SPC Bookstore.
